Weekly Topic Activity			Just For Fun!
Light and Forces Over the last nine weeks the online learning grids have looked at these subjects using different activities. Now you have your workbooks we will revisit each objective. This week please complete Section 1 - Light and Dark and Reflected Light.			Has anyone done any baking at home? Look up some simple recipes to make fairy cakes or find Mrs L's Bakery on Facebook and follow a video tutorial to make something yummy on a wet and miserable day.

If you have access to Education City login and look for Shine a Light. This provides an overview of both natural and man-made light sources, an introduction to how light is needed to see things and that darkness is the absence of light. The learn screen Smooth and Shiny also provides more information on reflected light.

Some support if needed. . . .

Adverbs - Words that describe verbs. They can tell you how, when, and how often the verb was done.
