Light and Forces

This week please complete Section 2 of your workbook - Shadows

If you have access to Education City login and watch the learn screen High Noon. This explains how shadows are formed and the effect of the movement of the Sun on the size and shape of shadows.

I am hoping the weather is going to improve this week. If so, get outside and enjoy it! Go for a walk, run, scooter or bike ride.

Some support if needed. . . .

Statements are sentences that give information.

Questions ask something.

Commands give instructions or orders.

Exclamations show strong feelings
